Beach Flags

Open water

In the programme of ILS

Athletes lie face-down in the sand, feet on the start line. At the signal they sprint 20 m to grab one of the batons planted in the sand. There is always one fewer baton than competitors: whoever is left out is eliminated. Rounds continue until the final.

Names and detailed rules may vary between rulebooks: always refer to the official rules of the competition.