Rescue Tube Rescue

Open water

In the programme of ILS

A four-person team event: a swimmer with fins and rescue belt sprints through the surf to the victim, secures the belt and tows them back. In the shallows, two beach rescuers take over and carry the victim across the finish line.

Names and detailed rules may vary between rulebooks: always refer to the official rules of the competition.